

Warriors know

Warriors know,
to God they need to pray
if they're to face
the battles of the day.

So before they go,
out into the field
courage in their armor
they know to wield.

Warriors prepare,
for the fight ahead
by wearing their helmet upon their head.

They carefully suit up,
so to stand firm
on the truths in the Bible that they have learned.

Warriors know,
God's armor a must
for it's God's power . . .
not their own they trust!
