

God Is Not Distant

Do you ever feel that God
Is distant and aloof?
Do you wonder if He cares
And has the time for you?

Do you think Christ would've died
If you were the only one?
Do you think God had such love
To have sent His only son?

I think God cares enough for us
To do this and much more
He's never distant and aloof
In this, you can be sure

He always said He'd never leave,
Nor will He forsake us,
He only wants to spend some time,
To share with us His love

We often say, 'God doesn't care
And there isn't any hope'
But it's maybe at those desperate times,
He's working in us the most

God loves us all, way to much,
To leave us as we are
That's why He sends to us the rain
To soften our hardened hearts.
